

Come meet the new recreation director:

Kate Sanderson

Kate Sanderson comes to Rollinsford after many years of working in both the private and public sectors with a focus on youth programming and aquatics. She has a bachelor's degree in Recreation Management (from UNH), has been a certified American Red Cross instructor since 2009 and has been involved with youth camp programming since 2003. While she is not a Rollinsford resident, she has lived here on the Seacoast since 2011 and currently resides in Berwick, Maine with her husband and two young sons. In her free time, she loves to be in or around the water swimming, boating, or playing on the beach with her family. She is excited to be here and to help develop recreational programming for all age groups in town.
